is unknown to no other restaurant keeper in the city, and there are over five hundred coffee drinkers who patronize us, say the same. In the first place, our coffee is a select blend especially put up for us by an exclusive coffee house, and we pay these people a price that only few restaurants can dare pay. We do not make any profit on our coffee nor do we intend to. The kind of business in which we are engaged enables us to use this brand of coffee and the time to prepare it right.

Come and see for yourselves. Don't forget that we carry a general line of merchandise, especially for working men.

Stop That Cough In A Minute

Would you give morphine or chloroform to your baby or take it yourself? Of course not. Yet most patent cough cures contain one or both. They stop a cough in a minute, which is dangerous. A cough should be cured internally by healing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, throwing it out, which is done by coughing. Badger Cough Balsam does not contain morphine or chloroform. It is made by percolation from bloodroot, lobelia, pine bark, wild cherry, etc. It cures a cough in a few days without filling the lungs with poisonous phlegm. The irritation is relieved, the lungs healed without danger of pneumonia. It's safe for children or old people. Get a bottle today for 25 cents. ## ORDINANCE WILL BAR ALL WOMEN FROM VISITING SALOONS Significant Measure Given First and Second Readings at Meeting of Council Yesterday.

A significant step toward the suppression of a long-standing evil was taken yesterday afternoon when the council gave first and second readings to an ordinance designed to prohibit the loitering of women in saloons or the serving of them drinks there. The ordinance also makes it unlawful for a minor to misrepresent himself as of age in order to buy intoxicating liquor and provides a penalty for the offense, and prohibits the employment of a minor as bartender. The text of the ordinance as drawn and introduced by Mayor Fathers is as follows:

"An ordinance to amend an ordinance numbered 355 entitled an ordinance to preserve peace and good order and to restrain vice and immorality by regulating the conditions under which the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be made by adding these three new sections to be known as section 2a, 2b and 4a.

"Section 2a—No person, firm or corporation holding a license from the city of Janesville, Wisconsin, for the vending or dealing in strong, spirituous, malt, ardent or intoxicating liquors shall serve any such liquors to a person of the female sex to be drunk on the premises mentioned in and covered by the license aforesaid, or in any other public place connected with said licensed room or place. It is hereby prohibited and made unlawful for any person, firm or corporation so licensed as aforesaid to suffer or permit a person or persons of the female sex to frequent or loiter in the room or place so mentioned in the license aforesaid, either for the purpose of being served with drinks or for any purpose whatsoever. From and after this act becomes effective it shall be unlawful for any female to enter a saloon in said city for the purpose of being there and there served with any such liquor or to drink any such liquors on the premises covered by the said license aforesaid. It shall also be unlawful for any female to frequent any such saloons or for any reason to loiter in the room or place so covered by such license.

"Section 2b—It is hereby unlawful for any minor to procure intoxicating liquors from any person or corporation so licensed as aforesaid by falsely representing himself to be above the age of 21 years, and no person, firm or corporation holding or operating under such license shall employ any minor as bartender or in any other capacity which in any way connects the said minor with the business for which the said license is granted. No such licensed dealer shall permit any minor to frequent or loiter about the premises covered by such license for any purpose whatsoever. The penalty for the violation of the foregoing section shall be the same as that provided in section three (3) of the original ordinance.

"Section 4a—This ordinance shall be in force and take effect from and after ten days following its passage and upon its publication, which said publication shall be for three successive days during the said interval of ten days."

MAKING LARGE HAULS OF CARP AT KEGONSA

Fishermen Load Car With Result of One Cast of Giant Seine Recently.

Reports that the carp fishers are not securing many carp is apparently unfounded as on Saturday last a catch estimated at twenty thousand pounds was made at Lake Kegonsa, near Stoughton.

On Saturday night they brought a scow load to Stoughton and will continue to haul the fish down river until a car can be filled for the market. J. E. Ovren's boat house is being utilized for packing purposes and by putting a heavy layer of ice over the fish they can be kept alive for a considerable time. Dead carp are of no value, except for chicken feed. Many escaped Saturday and Deputy Game Warden C. M. Clarke declares that a half carload broke away. The cribs, being now filled, it was necessary to begin shipping, though the market is unfavorable, the prices ranging below four cents at Chicago. A. F. Reid of Maiden Rock, Wis., representing the Lay Fish company, wholesale fish dealers contracted for the present consignment at 3 1/2 cents a pound. Mr. Wiedner, who conducts operations at the lake, has three other seiners gangs, two working the lagoons of the Mississippi, also for carp. He has been in this line of business the past 30 years. The work Saturday was down in front of Green's store, where obstructions are not quite as numerous as at other points in the lake.

The accompanying picture shows a part of the crew at work, and part of the completed blocks. Three new piers will be put in by the railroad companies to hold up the superstructure and to replace the old stone piers under the present bridge. According to one official today, the work will be continued through the winter without cessation in the hopes of having the bridge completed in the spring.

CASHMAN AND FORD GIVEN EXAMINATION

Hugh Cashman and Peter Ford, charged with stealing twenty-five baskets of grapes from a carload consigned to the firm of Hanley Brothers on Oct. 18, were given a hearing before Judge Fifield at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon to decide whether there was sufficient evidence to hold them for trial. Six or seven witnesses were called to testify. All of them admitted buying grapes from two men on the night of the eighteenth, and nearly all of them identified Cashman and Ford as the salesmen. The defendants were not represented by counsel, but Cashman was permitted, at his request, to cross-examine the witnesses. District Attorney Dunwiddie conducted the examination for the state.

Cashman took the stand in his own defense and denied having anything to do with the robbery or the selling of the stolen grapes. He admitted reaching the city the afternoon of the eighteenth, but gave an account of his actions up to the time of his arrest for intoxication that showed he was busy "shooting the can" and in other kindred activities. Rapid questioning by part of the district attorney failed to break his composure or in the least confuse him. Ford also took the stand in his own defense.

One of the witnesses testified that Cashman said he had a whole carload of grapes and that he would sell them from a wagon on the following morning. Most of the grapes had been sold at the west side hitch-harn.

Cashman and Ford were held for trial on November 6th and in default of bail will await their trial in jail.

Cashman has several times unloaded fruit for Hanley Brothers.

Bailey, superintendent of the Wisconsin division, F. A. Morrison, trainmaster, E. F. Wade, supervisor of motive power and machinery, J. L. Corning, chief smoke inspector, E. B. Hall, master mechanic of the Wisconsin division, W. V. Hoffman, formerly of this city, now foreman of the shops at Milwaukee, and W. S. Whitford, division foreman at Fond du Lac. Elaborate arrangements have been made for the affair and it is expected the party will be a great success.

BUSINESS MEN'S CLASS AT Y BEGAN SEASON'S WORK

Ten of the business and professional men of the city were present yesterday afternoon at the first meeting of the Business Men's class at the Young Men's Christian association, and took part in the development exercises given them by Physical Director T. C. Hartwell. About thirty men have signified their intentions of joining the class, and this number may be increased when the class is going full swing, but business activities and other reasons kept a number from attending yesterday. In addition to the development exercises it is planned to organize two basketball teams and two volley ball teams.

DIVORCES GRANTED TO THREE COUPLES

Marital Troubles Make Busy Morning For Judge Grimm at Circuit Court.

Domestic troubles in three families so far progressed that divorce seemed the only solution, furnished the business for the circuit court this morning. Judge Grimm granted all three separations.

Annie Matthews sought a divorce from her husband, Mark Matthews, both of this city on the grounds of cruelty and drunkenness. The plain-iff was given the care of the minor child, the title to the home which was already in her name and a judgment of $50 to cover the costs of the action.

Dorr Runary was granted a divorce from his wife, Tillie Runary, both residing in the town of Milton near Koshkonong on the grounds of cruelty. The care of the older minor children was given to the plaintiff and the younger minor child to the defendant.

The case of Ida M. Hall and George P. Hall, the plaintiff residing in the city of Beloit, was the third action. Non-support was the grounds on which a separation was ordered. The care of seven minor children was given to the plaintiff.

A motion to dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution in the case of the Davis Acetylene company vs. William Baars, was denied by the court this morning.

Judge Grimm returned to Jefferson today. He will probably not return to Janesville for court work until the opening of the jury cases on Nov. 18.

INSANE MAN WAS CAPTURED BY POLICE LAST EVENING.

Attempted to Disrobe in Front of House on Fifth Avenue—Caught With Gunny-sack Over Head.

Following an attempt to disrobe in front of a house on Fifth avenue early last evening, Isiah Greatsinger, an aged man, who is believed to be insane, was captured back of the circus on North Main street by Chief of Police Appleby last night. He was walking about with a gunny-sack over his head and at the approach of Chief Appleby he shouted, "Right more of 'em." The chief was not able to see the sights that Greatsinger saw, but took him back to the station where he was locked up. He will probably be examined for his sanity and committed to an asylum some time this afternoon.

MADAME RYDER HERE NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

Famous Russian Pianiste Will Give Recital Before Apollo Club—Miss Roberts Lyric Soprano.

On next Monday night will be given the second recital in a series of six installments which are to be given by the Apollo Club.

It was originally intended to have the second recital given entirely by Mme. Theodora Starkow Ryder, the famous Russian pianist but owing to the liberal patronage accorded the Apollo Club it was concluded by the directors to add another artist to the evening's entertainment, that of Miss Edith Roberts, Lyric soprano. Mme. Ryder has played before the Apollo Club before which proved one of the most attractive entertainments of the year. She is petite, vivacious, handsome and magnetic and charms her audiences as soon as she appears upon the platform. When about to play a piece that is not familiar to the audience she explains the various parts so that even the non-musicians can readily understand and appreciate what it all means and which adds very much to the evening's enjoyment to have this knowledge.

Miss Roberts has never before appeared before the Apollo Club. She was recently appointed chief of the musical department at Belmont College, Nashville, Tenn., an exclusive college for girls. She is only twenty-three years old and her appointment to such a position of trust is proof of the esteem in which she is held for she was chosen to fill this important post in preference to many candidates when the management of the college went to Paris to select a suitable vocalist for the position.

Next Monday's program will be especially rich in pleasing productions and no member of the Apollo Club should fail to hear this number.

It may also be of interest in this connection to note that negotiations are pending for the appearance of seven of the leading artists of the Thomas Orchestra before the Apollo Club at one of the later recitals.

So ambitious an attempt on the part of the management of the Apollo Club has never before been attempted. This will undoubtedly be the finest entertainment ever given by the Apollo Club. It will probably be given in the Opera House instead of Library Hall.

What it Was. "It is possible," said the speaker, "that some of you have heard the story I am about to tell you but—" "Possible?" interrupted a little man away down at one of the tables in the farthest corner; "it's a cinch."

BIG RUSH FOR SEATS FOR SATURDAY GAME

Wisconsin-Chicago Football Contest Will Attract Monster Crowd—Judge Karel at Mass Meeting.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Oct. 30.—The rush for seats at the Wisconsin-Chicago game here next Saturday is now in full blast, and the mail orders, sale to date has reached $3,500. Students tickets ordered in advance have been withheld from delivery until a day or two before the game to prevent scalping.

Karel at Mass Meeting.

Manager J. W. Wilce of the Athletics department, will speak to the Milwaukee Alumni association tonight. The Milwaukee contingent will come to the game on a special train. Coach Vail of the crew will address the Chicago alumni of Wisconsin in Chicago, Friday night. Judge John C. Karel will be one of the speakers at the mass meeting in this city Friday night. The gubernatorial candidate will attend the game Saturday.

Stranger Takes Notes.

Some excitement was occasioned among the students by a report that a stranger, stationed on the heights overlooking Camp Randall, busily took notes of the Badgers' practice Monday afternoon, aided by "spy-glasses." It is said, however, that he could gain little knowledge other than a general idea of the team's speed.

WITH THE BOXERS.

Reports from San Francisco have it that Willie Ritchie is about to side-track his manager, Billy Nolan. Battling Nelson wants to meet Packey McFarland and is willing to let McFarland name the terms.

Jack Redmond has been matched to meet Kid Alberts, of New York, in a 10-round bout at Brooklyn. It is said that a New Mexico promoter is ready to post $20,000 for a clash between Jim Flynn and John Willie.

"Gunboat" Smith is boxing in much better form in New York than he did in California, where he first branched out as a boxer.

It is possible that Johnny Conlon will get a return match with Kid Williams, the bout to be staged at New Orleans or Baltimore.

Leach Cross' brother is out with a guarantee of $6,000 to Ad Wolgast if the latter will consent to meet Leach in a 10-round bout at New York.

"Coe Man" McCloskey, the Bangor heavyweight, has been picked up by Tom O'Rourke, the veteran manager of boxers. Tom asserts that the Maine slugger will be ready to don the spangles in about two months.

FOOTBALL NOTES.

West Point has a coming back in Hogs, and a brilliant end rush in Hogs.

Georgetown has engaged Bill Moltenbeck, the old Pennsylvania star, to coach the team on defense.

It costs more than $1000 to keep a big college team player properly armored for the game of football.

C. White Jr., one of the backs on the Yale scrub team, is a son of Charley White, the veteran boxing referee.

Pennsylvania got a poor start this year, but may be able to finish the season in a blaze of glory.

Quarterback has given more trouble to the Yale coaches this season, than any other position on the Eli team.

The Cornell squad hereafter will hold but three scrimmages a week, including the games played at Ithaca.

The Harvard coaches will keep Hollister at end from now on, as Fred has been taken to the varsity squad from the second team.

Coach Stagg of the University of Chicago squad, whitewashes a pigskin, which is called the "ghost ball," for his team to use during late evening practice.

In Maubetsch, "Hurry up" Yost, the Michigan coach, declares he has another Heaton. Maubetsch is playing with the scrubs and will be eligible for the varsity team next year.

BELOIT IS MOST ANXIOUS TO WIN THE GAME ON SATURDAY

High School Students Prepare for Contest With Janesville at Mass Meeting.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Beloit, Oct. 30.—An enthusiastic mass meeting was held at the high school this morning for the purpose of arousing enthusiasm for the coming Beloit-Janesville football game.

The rival schools will meet Saturday morning at Janesville for a hard battle. Beloit is on her way towards the clinching of the championship of southern Wisconsin and a victory over her old rivals will give the local school the championship.

Coach Wickham spoke to the students and explained that their support will undoubtedly help win from Janesville. The students are trying to get enough, routers to go along so they can provide for a special car.

EXPECT TO DEFEAT BELOIT THIS WEEK

High School Eleven in Stiff Struggle Last Night in Preparation For Saturday's Game.

The stiffest scrimmage of this season took place last night in preparation for the Beloit game next Saturday. The local eleven will spend the remainder of the week in light signal drill to be in the best physical condition and to avoid overtraining. The fear is expressed that the eleven might go stale, but every precaution is being taken to avoid this.

Beloit may put up a hard battle, from what is at present known of their team. They boast of a good backfield and a strong line, which if treated properly, would develop into a winning eleven. Regardless of what has been heard, the Janesville players think they are in a class by themselves in comparison with the Line City boys and are ready to give them a good trimming.

Janesville will not be satisfied unless a good score can be secured, and if they fail to do this, a word of praise will be due the Beloit eleven. "The locals have a much better team than last year. They have shown" this by the four straight victories over fast teams, which they have decisively defeated, putting three high school teams out of the running for the state championship.

The team this Saturday will line up just the same as it did last week. Falter is a regular halfback now for the rest of the season, and his strength in the backfield aids the local defense considerably as well as on the defense.

If Edler is in the same condition this week as he was last Saturday, he may pull off some of those spectacular runs which he did against Whitewater. One feature of his running was the touch-down from the kick-off. By receiving the ball on his own 23 yard line, and like a flash, he tore through the entire Whitewater team, with good interference for the length of the field placing the ball directly between the goal posts. The time from which he received the ball, and crossing the goal line, was just a trifle over eight seconds. This is the third time in the history of the school that such a run has been made. George Caldwell and McNeal being the other heroes, who have accomplished this feat.

The game will be played at ten o'clock in the morning, on account of the Wisconsin-Chicago game at Madison. About two hundred from this city are to attend this annual struggle which is for the Western Championship this year.

Dr. Hartman Makes Public the Facts As to What Doctors Think of Peruna

S. E. HARTMAN, M. D.

Of course doctors disagree about Peruna, the same as they do on all other subjects. It is generally thought that the doctors are unanimously opposed to Peruna. It is well known that Peruna has cured a great many cases after doctors have given them up. This would naturally excite animosity or jealousy on the part of the doctors. Then it is a fact that the average doctor is opposed to ready-made medicines of all kinds. They know very well if a bottle of medicine is sold at the drug store that means that some doctor loses a prescription and perhaps a patient. So they are generally opposed to patent medicines, or ready-made medicines as they call them.

But ever since Peruna has been sold I have known of many doctors who are in favor of Peruna. Some of them believe in it secretly, others openly. All this time I have been receiving letters from regular practicing physicians offering to send me testimonials as to the virtues of Peruna, provided I would pay them for doing so.

It is nothing unusual that a doctor should expect pay for such a service. The manufacturers of so-called ethical preparations advertised in the medical journals, used by the doctors only, are in the habit of paying doctors for testimonials. If a doctor has found some one of these proprietary remedies useful and can write a good, smart article about it, the manufacturer is perfectly willing to pay the doctor for this service. So it is perfectly natural for doctors to write to me telling me that they know of cases where Peruna has made marvelous cures, and are willing to furnish me the facts if I will pay them.

But I have always refused to pay for such a service. I have invariably made a courteous reply to the doctor, and telling him it is opposed to my policy and principles to pay for testimonials, either directly or indirectly. There would be no trouble at all in my obtaining hundreds of testimonials from doctors if I would pay the doctors for doing so.

I recently received such a letter from Kentucky, from a doctor who says he has been practicing medicine for a quarter of a century, and is at present "medical referee" for this county, president of the county medical board, local surgeon of the C. & O. railroad, member of the state medical society and American Medical Association, and all that. He has used Peruna and offers to give me a very remarkable testimonial. If I would pay him for doing so, he does not set any price but expects me to offer him something, which of course I refused to do. He said, "I have been afflicted with a sub-acute inflammatory condition of the post nasal space, and of recent years the larynx has been involved in the catarrhal process. Your Peruna entirely relieved me of both conditions, after a comparatively short time of using it. Today I am the happiest man alive. Medical men will hardly believe me when I tell them that your medicine cured me, but it is a fact. Nevertheless, I had tried for fifteen years every known means, tool, treatment at several sanitariums." He is willing to take oath to these statements if I will make it worth his while to do so.

It was very gratifying to receive such a testimonial from a brother physician and quite a temptation to pay him a small sum, and allow his letter to be published. But I have an undeviating policy of refusing to pay any one for a testimonial. Nothing would sooner lead to insincerity and embarrassment than to offer pay for testimonials. I should be flooded with testimonials of all sorts and in spite of every precaution some of them would be untrustworthy.

In referring to the doctor's letter I do not consider that I am violating the ordinary courtesies and confidences of private correspondence. I have not made use of his name or the town where he resides. But I am perfectly willing to communicate the name and address by private correspondence if any one wishes me to do so, or submit the letter for examination to any inquirer who may call at my office. And I may say the same in advance of the next letter that I am about to refer to.

Another doctor from North Carolina writes me. He says: "I have a case under observation now permanently cured by Peruna that has baffled the medical profession ever since the disease was known." He says, "I have successfully cured the case with Peruna and feel that if the public knew the facts about the case that it would be a great boon to the public, as well as the greatest advertisement ever given any medicine on the market." He says, "I can furnish a sworn statement of the particular case and give you the greatest ad. for Peruna ever known for any remedy. The disease cured in this case is regarded by the profession as incurable. I prescribed the Peruna myself and know all the particulars. The patient had consulted leading medical authorities, had taken the most modern treatment, and everything failed, not even obtaining relief. He had also applied for insurance and upon examination was rejected. After taking the Peruna treatment for a few months he again applied for insurance, was examined and accepted. This was one year ago now and he is still well." The doctor goes on to say, "I wait your early reply, and if you place the valuation to you on this that I do I am sure the inducement you offer will meet my approval and I will furnish you with sworn statement of the case for an advertisement."

Now these two letters are only samples of letters that I have been receiving for the last twenty-five years, from doctors from all parts of the United States. I have made no use of these letters for the reason that pay was always demanded and I do not think it is strictly moral to offer any monetary inducement for published testimonials. I have never done so and I never shall.

But incidentally this kind of letters proves conclusively that Peruna is a great remedy for catarrhal diseases. No doctor would resort to Peruna until after he had exhausted every other remedy. When Peruna can assert its value in the hands of people that are naturally prejudiced against it, it has proven itself a wonderful remedy.

Again I wish to say, I do not blame these doctors for expecting me to pay them. That is the way the regular ethical manufacturer does and I have no quarrel with it. I am citing these cases not to disparage the doctors who have written these letters, but rather to show that doctors in good standing, in spite of their prejudice against Peruna, scores of doctors, have been convinced of its value in the treatment of catarrhal diseases.

I am a doctor myself. I have probably treated more patients than any one doctor in the state in which I live. I doubt if there are many doctors in the United States who have treated more cases. I have long been convinced that Peruna is the best remedy obtainable for catarrhal diseases. I have seen thousands, yes tens of thousands, of people recover from catarrhal ailments by the use of Peruna. I cannot believe otherwise than that Peruna is today the best remedy that has ever been devised for catarrhal diseases.

I am not sure but that I will have my files searched for similar letters to the ones I have alluded to, for there are a great many of them filed away. I may publish a book containing a large number of testimonials given me by doctors, which I have withheld from the public because I was not willing to pay any one for writing a testimonial, however valuable it might seem to be. Of course, I will not use this booklet for public advertisement since I have not the doctors' consent to do so, but it will be sent through the mails to those only who request it, chiefly to the medical profession.

KILL THIS AMENDMENT.

The one pernicious amendment which should be buried beyond resurrection this year will be known as Joint Resolution No. 48.

To amend Article XI of the Constitution by adding thereto a new section, relating to the acquisition of lands by the state or any of its cities for certain public purposes.

Whereas, At the biennial session of the legislature for the year 1909, an amendment to the Constitution was proposed and agreed to by a majority of the two Houses, which proposed amendment is as follows:

"Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That Article XI of the Constitution be amended by adding a new section thereto, to be known as Section 35 to read:

Section 35. The state or any of its cities may acquire by gift, purchase or condemnation lands for establishing, laying out, widening, enlarging, extending and maintaining memorial grounds, streets, squares, parkways, boulevards, parks, playgrounds, sites for public buildings, and reservations in and about and along and leading to any or all of the same; and after the establishment, layout, and completion of such improvements may convey any such real estate thus acquired and not necessary for such improvements, with reservations concerning the future use and occupation of such real estate, so as to protect such public works and improvements, and their environs, and to preserve the view, appearance, light, air and usefulness of such public works"; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Wisconsin be, and the same is hereby agreed to by this Legislature.

RECENT HISTORY.

Among the staunch supporters of Senator La Follette, in his early campaign for the presidency, was the Pinchot brothers, Amos and Gifford. They contributed freely of time and money, and remained loyal until released by Walter Houser, La Follette's campaign manager. The senator has since gone back on the Pinchot boys, much to their surprise and disgust, as will be seen by the following letter of recent date.

"To the Editor of the New York Times: My attention has just been called to the latest swan song of my friend La Follette of Wisconsin. La Follette knows as well as I know that my brother and I and his other supporters stuck to him loyally as long as there was the slightest hope of his leading the Progressive campaign. We had started in to back La Follette, and we kept on backing him until he himself, through his manager, Walter Houser, sent us a message that we were released on account of his physical inability to keep up the fight. Whether or not Houser's message from La Follette represented La Follette's own state of mind nobody but La Follette and Houser can tell.

"Certainly on the Sunday after La Follette's breakdown in Philadelphia, Houser phoned all of the La Follette backers that were within reach that the senator was through and that we were free to back anyone we felt like. A few days after this a conference was held in Charles R. Crane's apartment in Twelfth street in this city, at which Houser and Mr. Crane discussed a plan to send the senator to Egypt to recuperate. It was not till after this that my brother switched to Roosevelt. Before this, however, Houser, Lenroot and other of La Follette's most intimate friends had taken the lead in trying to persuade the senator to withdraw from the race. At a conference away back in December, La Follette himself produced a draft of a letter in which he proposed to turn over his strength to Roosevelt, on the ground that Roosevelt would make a stronger campaign for the Progressives.

AMOS PINCHOT.

New York, Oct. 22, 1912.

If the "Pinchots" had lived in Wisconsin they would not be surprised at the treatment they have received. Or if they had been familiar with conditions in the Badger state they would have discovered that the political highway is strewn with wrecks of men who have dared to oppose the will of the supreme dictator.

But the spell is broken and the late Pinchots would be moved with pity for the fallen hero, should they meet him today. The fighter is shorn of his strength and the house which he so long occupied is divided against itself and on the verge of collapse.

The people of the state, which has been his stamping ground, are sorry for the man, but not sympathetic, and many of his old-time friends have nothing to offer in the way of consolation. He has ruled the state with an iron hand, and the people have wearied of his despotism.

His political ambition has played havoc with his judgment and his best friends are humiliated and disappointed and refuse to follow his leadership. If the national progressive party has come to stay, he is the logical leader, and had he remained loyal under defeat this year his reward would have been assured in 1916.

The success of the democratic party—should it occur this year—means defeat, but not death to the republican party. Whatever may be demanded, in the way of progressive reform, can be secured through the party which has served the nation so long and so intelligently.

The national progressive party, without Roosevelt, would never have seen the light of national organization, and it will not long survive defeat, because personal popularity is short-lived, unless some great principle is involved. Senator La Follette met his Waterloo as the result of misguided ambition. The colonel is liable to share the same fate.

THE BUDGET.

The budget presented by the common council will bear close inspection, and the more carefully it is studied the more will the fact be appreciated that every effort has been made to serve the city intelligently.

The new assessment places the property valuation at $15,000,000. The budget calls for $159,000, or a trifle over one per cent of the assessed valuation. This is not extravagant and will not be so considered by the taxpayers.

The budget last year called for $154,500 on a valuation of about $10,000,000. This, on a percentage basis, represents more than one and a half per cent. This means a more equitable distribution of city taxes and a lighter individual assessment on property at its assessed valuation.

The budget includes an item of $25,000 for sewer and bridge bonds. This is a debt that the present council had nothing to do with, but it should be cheerfully paid because the improvements were needed and are of lasting benefit to the city.

If the council made any mistake in their estimate, it was not along the line of extravagance, but rather of economy, which in the end is wasteful.

In view of the report just made by the state school inspector, it is very evident that some of our school buildings are in a deplorable condition, and a liberal appropriation is needed to make them sanitary and wholesome.

A false idea of economy is responsible for these conditions, which would not exist had we provided proper funds when needed. The school board was obliged to beg for a meagre appropriation, and then only secured half the money necessary for the work.

This "penny wise and pound foolish" policy lacks the first elements of common sense. The money expended on the schools is for your children and mine. We ought to be glad to contribute freely and cheerfully to promote our own interests, to say nothing about the welfare of our children.

The $2,500 for industrial education should be doubled, for that is the most important branch of our public school system, and of vital importance to every home. It is to be regretted that the appropriation was not made in time to secure the establishment of the school this year.

The division of the ward funds seems a good deal like a burlesque, for the commission form of government aims to abolish ward lines, and treat the city as a unit, and it should be so treated.

There is no reason why one ward should have any better streets than another. Every street should be good and the leading streets, running out of the city, should be brick paved to the city limits, at city expense. There has been enough money wasted on our streets during the last ten years to build twenty miles of brick pavement, and the taxpayers have paid for the waste.

The commission is to be congratulated on the intelligent work being accomplished on our streets. While not able to use brick, they have discovered how to use macadam, as will be noticed by the work now in progress on Washington street.

The fact is generally recognized that Janesville is not consumed with a burning ambition for city growth, but we can not afford to neglect the care of the best city in the state for a home.

The commission is entitled to every encouragement in efforts to better conditions. The budget presented is not extravagant, and if more money is needed it should be furnished without complaint.

LA FOLLETTE ON MCGOVERN.

Discussing Governor McGovern's attempt to obtain the temporary chairmanship of the republican national convention, Senator La Follette in his weekly says:

"A pretense was made that McGovern's candidacy was in my interest, and would, in some mysterious way, have aided in my nomination. But this valuable service in my behalf was conceived and carried along toward consummation without consultation with, or indeed, without an intimation to me, and kept carefully under cover until the Chicago convention was right at hand—and then attempted to be forced through over my earnest protest. It must always stand upon the record as a betrayal of my candidacy, but of the progressive principles which the Wisconsin voters instructed these men to represent with fidelity."

It will be noticed that the big "I" is a prominent feature. It was ever thus. The man who attempts to thwart "me" is doomed for the tar barrel or some other receptacle.

The Milwaukee Germania thus sizes up the Wisconsin muddle: "Senator La Follette is pursuing very peculiar tactics with reference to Governor McGovern and it is really difficult to say whether he wishes his erstwhile friend and favorite elected or defeated. In his speeches he re-

Just one long grand sweet song.
I wouldn't bustle to the mill
Like any common job;
I would be some aristocrat
If my wife had a job.

I would not grab the dinner pail
And start to work at 6;
I'd stick around the corner
And argue politics.
I'm sure I could become a boss,
In fact, a real nobob,
If I could spend the time at it,
And my wife had a job.

I would become an autocrat,
I'd just pass out advice.
I'd solve all knotty problems

A feller who wants to commit suicide when his gun goes back on him ought to be given a one-day ticket to the insane asylum. It's a wise mutt who knows when he's well off.

There are enough ways to be unhappy without buying your kid a pair of roller skates or a snare drum. It is gettin' so the present campaign sounds like a cat fight at the village sewin' circle.

There ain't much use tryin' to convert a feller that has worn a derby hat, winter and summer, all his life.

quests his hearers to forget the Governor's leap into the "tar barrel" and to merely bear in mind that he is a loyal champion of the progressive cause. In his magazine articles, however, he belittles him, so that no well-to-do dog would accept a piece of bread of him, and between the lines one might almost read, "Don't mind my speeches, but beat the turncoat so that the rags will fly."

The republican county ticket is entitled to the support of all republicans. The candidates are representative men, well qualified to fill the offices to which they have been nominated. They are in no way responsible for the deplorable condition of the state ticket, and are not in sympathy with the fight going on within the ranks of the progressives. They were nominated by republicans at the primaries, and should be elected by an old-time republican majority.

The city attorney is to be congratulated on the ordinances presented yesterday for the suppression of vice. The boys of the city need the protection, and every saloon man who respects the law will welcome the ordinances. The number of women who drink is comparatively small, and there is no reason why they can not satisfy a depraved appetite without publicly disgracing the sex.

Drew Bees Into His Mouth.
B. F. Perrill, a farmer near Danville, Ky., escaped death after he had sucked a mouthful of bees into his windpipe while removing honey from a beehive. Perrill was using a large wooden pipe, blowing smoke into the beehive to keep the bees from stinging him.

Mr. Pettigrew's Cows.
Mr. Erasmus Pettigrew, the prominent agriculturalist and substantial citizen and taxpayer who lives near Hickeyville met with a sad loss during one of the hot days this summer. Mr. Pettigrew owned five handsome and intellectual Jersey cows, which were among the best milk givers in this locality, and the rosy-cheeked milkmaids who sat under the lacteal fluid which was gathered by the dripping saucers of said cattle was famous throughout the country. One hot day a peculiar and fatal accident happened to these five cows. Strange as it may seem they were frozen to death.

There may be some who will doubt this story and some others who, in a jovial frame of mind, will say that a frozen cow is more valuable than a cow will give ice cream instead of co will give ice cream instead of plain cream, but this is not time for merry quip or ribald jest. Mr. Pettigrew's cows were frozen and it happened this way: Mr. Pettigrew's neighbor, Mr. Britchen, went in the spring rather strongly for popcorn culture. He had noted the vast amounts of popcorn consumed at circuses, baseball games and prize fights and decided to make his fortune in popcorn. He planted it according to schedule and then prayed for warm weather. His prayers were answered and the weather came too warm, so warm in fact that it popped all of Mr. Britchen's popcorn. It made a terrible noise, something like a Fourth of July celebration in a county seat village and the neighbors hastened to the scene. They were much surprised to find all of Mr. Pettigrew's cows standing stifflegged and frozen. The cows had seen Mr. Britchen's west forty entirely covered with popped corn and thought it was snow. Believing themselves to be in the bosom of a blizzard, they promptly froze to death.

PRESS AND POLITICS

The Iowa Phase of It.

Milwaukee Journal.—In Iowa, too, they are "mussed up." The Republican candidate for governor is Clark. It is understood that Clark intends to vote for Roosevelt, but he is not willing while remaining Republican candidate for governor officially to repudiate Taft. Clark evidently sees what honor demands.

The third party have put a candidate in the field against Clark, the same correspondent explains, "on the ground that the law requires them to poll a certain per cent of the vote for governor in order to have, next year, a place for their candidates on the official ballot. They say they are laying the foundations of a new party, which is to take the place of the defunct Republican party."

It is interesting to consider these facts in connection with the conditions in Wisconsin. A "Republican" state administration would help to destroy the "Republican party." It puts one's head in a whirl.

COUNCIL COMPLETES COMPILING BUDGET

APPROXIMATELY ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY THOUSAND TO BE LEVIED.

INCREASE VERY SLIGHT

High School Bonds to Be Paid Off—
Anticipate Decrease in Revenue
From Saloon Licenses.

The sum of $159,983.00 will be raised by taxation for municipal purposes in Janesville for the year 1912, according to the budget adopted by the City Council yesterday afternoon.
This is an increase of $5,449.05 over the 1911 budget which was $154,533.95.
In the bonded debt there is an increase of $1,790 and in the school fund an increase of $3,000. The hospital fund remains at $5,000, but there is an increase of $3,500 in the general fund.
The fire and water fund is $11,500 less, the lighting appropriation the same as last year, the bridge fund $4,000 higher, the library fund $500 lower, the ward highway funds $222 lower than last year. There is added to the budget since last year $2,500 for the establishment of a continuation industrial school, and two items found in last year's budget but not in this year's are an appropriation of $1,000 for the county training school and $50 credited to the judiciary fund for payment of a judgment.

The increase in the bonded debt fund is due to the fact that the city has prepared to pay off the remaining bonded indebtedness on the high school, i. e., $6,000. For several years after this debt was contracted in 1895, the city paid off the principal at the rate of $2,500 a year, in later years $3,000. There is some question as to the date of the payment until 1914, that the city might not be able to pay it within the twenty year limit of payment as the money appropriated for the purpose would not become available until late in the year. It was for this reason that the council decided to clean up this indebtedness this year. Without the payment of $1,000 on the bonds of each of the two new bridges the bonded debt would have been $5,000 less this year than last.

Increases in salaries of teachers are responsible for the addition of $3,000 to the school fund.

New items and anticipated decreases in city revenue are accountable for the increase of $8,500 in the general fund. Officers' salaries total $4,900 more than last year because of the change to the commission form of government. The salary of a visiting nurse adds $1,000 to the fund and the salary of the city sealer of weights, and measures is $400 more. Preparation is also made for the purchase of apparatus for oiling the streets. The lowering of the water works. The $2,500 is made for a decrease of $2,000 in the prospective city revenues, as the council does not intend to issue more than forty saloon licenses next year. It now licenses fifty-three saloons and three breweries.

The fire and water fund shows a decrease of $10,500 from the appropriation made toward it last year, which was $30,000. Of this latter amount there remains $7,300 appropriated for hydrant rental contingent to the city taking over the water works. The $2,500 is provided for the purchase of a combined motor propelled hose wagon and fire police patrol wagon for the east side fire station. The usual appropriation of $1,000 to the fire police is included in this amount.
The appropriation to the bridge fund is to cover the expense of re-decking the Milwaukee street bridge.
The $1,000 levied for it last year was for the re-building of the Paul bridge, and has not yet been used.

The city will receive from the state at the end of the first year after establishing a continuation school, half of the amount which was appropriated for that purpose, $2,500.
It will be some time before the rate of taxation for city purposes can be determined as the removal of personal property from the assessment rolls consequent to the adoption of the income tax law has complicated matters. Mayor Fathers estimates that about $1,000,000 in personal property will be taken from the assessment rolls.

Brewing company to facilitate the work of building now being done by Mr. Decker in the rear of the Janes-chased from the Schlitz company by Mr. Decker.

Auto Hits Horse: The horse owned by O. P. Brunson, Milton avenue, was struck by the automobile owned and driven by Phil Sheridan, on Academy street last evening. The horse was tied at the curb and in stopping his car Mr. Sheridan struck the leg of the animal. A slight bruise was the only damage.

Early Morning Blaze: The fire department was called out at one o'clock this morning to extinguish a small blaze which started in a pile of rubbish in the rear of the Ryan livery barn on South Main street. Two wagons responded to the call and the fire was easily put out with one stream of water.

Was in Fountain: City workmen who were repairing the fountain at the Corn Exchange for winter quarters found a large collection of tin boxes, knives, small pieces of wearing apparel, and other articles in the mud in the basin. It was evident that the fountain had been widely used as a place to deposit waste.

Had Serious Fall: A child, aged four or five years, fell through the grating in front of Miss Feeley's millinery shop on South Main street last space between the basement window and the grating. The child was uninjured.

the ground floor in answering an alarm, he struck with great force on one foot, severely injuring his ankle.

ten days additional. Knipschild had sentence suspended upon him for a week and was notified that if he was found drunk or in any saloon ced to the offense to which he pleaded guilty.

ARRANGE DETAILS OF RECEIVING ELECTION RETURNS ON TUESDAY.

Gazette Will Display Them On Large Canvas Opposite Office on Milwaukee Street.

There will be no need for anyone to go to bed election night without knowing how the great national election is going and what the latest returns are. The Gazette has completed arrangements for a complete telegraph service over the Western Union telegraph wires and will also supply this service with telephone reports from Milwaukee office of the Associated Press, on state results. Aside from this the result in Rock county will also be known early in the evening so that by midnight at least a general idea can be learned of how the state and nation have gone on the presidential and gubernatorial proposition.

Manager Myers has arranged for an excellent musical comedy, "The Girl Who Dared," to give two performances on election night and the returns will be read from the stage of the theatre during the two performances as fast as received at the Gazette office. This will be in addition to the display of the same returns on a large canvas across from the Gazette office on Milwaukee street. Those who desire to watch the returns from the street can do so and persons desiring a seat can attend the Myers theatre.

A special office has been strung into the Gazette office from the Western Union switch board, and an expert operator will be here from Chicago assuring excellent service. These returns will be handled by a force of experts and the results flashed on the big screen. Direct connection with Milwaukee, over long distance phone, into the office staff of the Associated Press,
will give the state results.

A special telephone will be installed by the Rock County Telephone Company for the use of persons who wish to obtain information by this method and an operator will read off the results to them. This will leave the other regular office phones free for use in receiving returns.

CALVIN S. STEWART
ATTACKS M'GOVERN
IN SPEECH TODAY

Democratic Candidate for Congress Attacked State Administration in Noon-day Speech From Automobile on Street.

Gov. McGovern, the state administration, the state commissions established in Wisconsin, the income tax, and all forms of progressive legislation, so-called, were attacked in a speech made today by Calvin S. Stewart, democratic candidate for congressman in the first district, who spoke to a crowd of men from the rear seat of J. C. Nichols' automobile at the corner of North River and West Milwaukee streets. Mr. Stewart's speech was concerned almost entirely with the state issues, although he referred several times to his own candidacy as an opponent to Henry A. Cooper, the present congressman from this district. His only reference to national issues was with regard to Wilson and Roosevelt, and he said that Wilson had done more for the laboring man than has Roosevelt in the twenty-five years he has been in public life.

In his criticism of the present state government, the speaker said that the administration of the state government is costing as much as it does in states of two and half times the population and that it cost five million dollars per year alone to pay the salaries of the state officers. The administration of government in the state by commissions not elected by the people he said has brought about a condition worse than that that existed in the colonial days when our forefathers fought to shake off the tyranny of King George and drive out his officers. The income tax law he characterized as inquisitorial and as bad as the search warrants used by the British officers to search the houses of the American colonists. He drew a parallel between conditions as they exist now in the state and in the colonial days.

Governor McGovern, he said, was a man who did not have enough nerve to stand up and say what he stood for, and that the governor had come for the progressives because Norman L. Baker, McGovern's assistant, had made him do it. La Follette, the speaker stated, does not mean exactly what he says in his endorsement of McGovern, but does so for political purposes to ensure his re-election as senator. Mr. Stewart said he had heard that there is a discrepancy of one hundred thousand to a quarter of a million dollars between the books of the secretary of state and the state treasurer.

In his closing remarks, Mr. Stewart assailed the "Mary Ann" law and other "fool" laws enacted by the progressives. He paid a high tribute to Attorney General Bancroft, who he said was the ablest attorney general the state has had since J. L. O'Connor held that office. He severely criticized Governor McGovern for appointing Philip Lehner as an advisor, and stated that the reason Mr. Bancroft would not run again was because he could not give interpretation of all the poor laws that had been enacted. He made an appeal to the voters to cast their votes to oust the present state officers and elect Karel and the entire state ticket, and to cast their votes for Alexander Paul as assemblyman from this district.

Mr. Stewart began speaking about half past twelve, and spoke for about forty-five minutes to the men assembled on the corner. It was originally intended to have him speak first at the plant of the Janesville Barb Wire company, but members of the county committee deemed it advisable to change these plans. From here Mr. Stewart went to Clinton, where he speaks tonight.

"OUR BOB."

If you read Bob's recent speeches you cannot help but note that neither Teddy, Tatt, or Wilson is going to get his vote. Still I think that on Town Meeting day a choice will surely be made.

By fifteen million parties (with out "Our Bobbies" aid.

This statement from "Our Bobbie" who holds the exalted place of Republican U. S. Senator, comes with mighty durn poor grace.

It's very plain for one to see what makes his poor heart throb. It's cos' he can't mark the ticket so it will count for "Bob."

Now Teddy says he's a progressive, likewise does Bobby too.

Now if that's the case, black must be white, and yaller must be blue.

This 1912 progression is queer to say the least.

With one of its leaders goin' west, and the other facin' east.

Now Bob is dodgin' round the state, just he's here 'n' then he's there.

A fillin' every Opry house with La Follette filtered air.

He prances up 'n' down the stage an' with his thunderous voice proclaims to the people listnin' that McGovern is his choice.

When "Bobbie" and his followers got the reins to run our state, it certainly is a caution the laws they did create.

There's a Commission now fur ev'rything and all of 'em well paid.

Out of the pockets of our people for the durn fool laws they made.

One will tell you to be careful when yer handlin' kerosene, He tells you never to scratch matches on a can of gasoline.

One tells you when to go to bed an' when to get up in the mornin'.

One tells you to consult the Zodiac afore you trim yer corn.

Another will tell the folks thet's livin' on the farm, How to feed the old corn shredder without the losin' of an arm.

Not one of these treasury parasites, it would be safe to say, Ever saw a shredder workin' or pitched a load of hay.

You bet "Our Bob's" abustlin' now without a halt or hitch, Fur he knows his hand or plunderers are nearin' the last ditch.

B'gosh all hemlocks people, if we ain't alert and wise, He'll change the name of our old state and call it Camp Van Hise.

When election day is past an' the votes hev all been cast, This terrible fact on "Bobby" then will dawn, Thet he's lived to see the day to hear the Donkey bray While grazin' out upon the State House lawn.

W. T. Sherer appeared before the Council to explain the plans of the new Apollo theatre on West Milwaukee street, the Chief of the Fire Department having reported that they were not in harmony with the provisions of the city ordinance in that the walls above the second story were nine instead of twelve inches. Mr. Sherer demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Council that the plans of the building provided a generous margin of safety in construction and was granted permission to proceed with the work. He called the attention of the Council to the fact that the city ordinance makes no allowance for the use of hollow tile in lining the walls, a practice which is followed in all high grade building construction today.

The Wisconsin Carriage Company was granted permission to sink turpentine and oil supply tanks on Locust street, opposite their factory in conformance with the fire insurance underwriters' specifications and with the approval of the Chief of the Fire Department.

Superintendent of Streets Miltmore was ordered to repair South Main street from Sharon street to the Paul bridge. Superintendent of the Stone Crusher, W. C. Duluth reported that 914 cubic yards of stone had been taken from the crusher between October 14 and October 26.

The salary list for the month of October was submitted and the City Clerk directed to draw orders in payment of the various items, which totaled $1,700. Orders were also directed drawn in payment of bills for usual services and current expenses, these amounting to $1,873.71.

At The Theatre

"FRECKLES"

A. G. Delamater's production of Gene Stratton-Porter's "Freckles" was given a thorough try out last spring in several of the principal cities of the East. The play won the unqualified endorsement of all the critics and the managers of every theatre in all the cities where it was seen.

This season "Freckles" will be produced in New York and all of the leading cities of the East by one company to be known as the Eastern Company, a Western Company is also being engaged to play an extended engagement in Chicago and the other large cities of the middle and far West.

Anatol Friedland, the celebrated Viennese of "The Wife Hunters" and other operatic successes, has given the play an exceptionally sweet musical setting. Crosbie Gill, the noted scenic artist of Wallack's Broadway Theatre, New York, was the artist engaged to paint the scenic productions and was given instructions to make the scenic investiture as beautiful and elaborate as possible, regardless of expense.

"KINDLING"

Sarah Paden, starring in Charles Kenyon's play, "Kindling," boasts of a three-year-old namesake. They put "Margaret before Sarah to take the oner away," laughed Miss Paden, and went on to tell how cunning Margaret Sarah really is. Some one asked the young star why stage people seem so fond of children. "They come so little into our lives, I suppose," was her answer. "That makes us realize how wonderful they are. All I know about children is this," she twinkled, indicating a wedding ring on her finger "and it's brass. I have to wear it all the time, or I shall lose it and I must have it on in 'Kindling'."

That Miss Paden is as young as her years despite quite a long period of stage work was proved by her next remark. "I do love going to places," traveling through different states, especially in the West, and when its spring! The little towns are so charming. Being in them tho' is not always so pleasant as getting to them. Still I've had wonderful times. Horseback riding is a delight to me, and many hours have I spent riding around exploring little towns near the one in which we were playing."

Miss Paden is eager to play "Rosamund." She has never played in Shakespeare at all but she has a trick of charming roguishness and a talent for delicate comedy which leads her friends and management to believe that she would prove particularly appealing in the Shakespeare character.

Miss Paden will appear at Myers theatre in "Kindling" Saturday November 2 Matinee and evening.

"THE GIRL WHO DARED"

Seamans and Anthony's delightful musical Comedy, "The Girl Who Dared" which comes to the Myers theatre Sunday November 3, Matinee and evening is a drama of scintillating color that has never been surpassed in the history of elaborate stage settings. The piece itself, while it has an interesting story, to tell, is full of music that is calculated to tickle the ears, and the comedians are given ample opportunity to disport themselves to the unbounded delight of the audiences. There are no less than twenty songs of the most catchy variety, that will be whistled and hummed on the streets long after the engagement here. As an example of modern stage management it is full of all kinds of pleasant surprises. This particularly noticeable in the work of the chorus, which is the youngest prettiest and best singing group of young ladies entertaining the amusement loving public today. The comedians are headed by the clever artist, Herbert J. Carter, who succeeds in keeping the audience convulsed in laughter whenever on the stage.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN

The Myers theatre will have on Friday, November 1st, matinee at 4 and evening, Kibbie and Martin's mammoth production of the immortal American drama, "Uncle Tom's Cabin"; the most correct and expressive scenic production of the late Harriet Beecher Stowe's everlasting legacy to posterity ever seen in America, the only version that has been accepted by the pulpit as a moral instructor. No such amount of money as Kibbie and Martin have spent on this play, has ever before been expended on this neglected and much abused American drama. They have taken great pains in selecting of the cast and have engaged actors for their special fitness for their various parts, rather than for their ability to play some instrument in the band, which has been the rule with managers of like attractions. The company which Messrs. Kibbie and Martin will bring to our city is said to number over fifty people, including negroes to add to the pictures and sing the dance in the levee and other scenes. A special train of Pullman palace cars are required to transport this famous monarch of them all.

Little Six Premier Is Here

(This Car is the Sensation of the Year, as PREMIER is the First of the Five Leaders) to Meet the Demand for a High-Grade Little Six on the New Price Basis

Premier 6-40—Fully Equipped—$2735

The Premier

Is America's Greatest Touring Car. Ninety per cent of Premier output is sold to the friends of the men who own them, and more than eighty-eight per cent of the original owners of Premier cars are still driving Premier cars.

In the famous "Ocean-to-Ocean" Tour twelve Premier cars started and twelve Premier cars, all being driven by their owners, finished without mechanical difficulty.

For six years Premier has been building SIXES. Therefore, this NEW LITTLE SIX Premier is not an experiment. "The bugs have been whipped out." Why take the chance of buying the unproven car when the greatest Premier of all, the NEW LITTLE SIX, backed with a record which proves absolutely the car to be America's greatest touring car, can be purchased for $2735, equipped with a pneumatic starter, tire inflator and electric lights.

Six Cylinder

The PREMIER LITTLE SIX has a 4-inch bore with a 5-inch stroke, with the Premier type T-head motor.

Extremely large crank shaft with liberal bearings are used.

The PREMIER LITTLE SIX is a cool, sweet running, quiet and powerful motor, developing on brake test 48 horsepower at 1400 revolutions, or a maximum of 63 horsepower. The principles of Premier design have been closely followed in this new model. It is a Premier.

132-Inch Wheel Base

The 36-inch wheels, carrying 4½-inch tires with 132-inch wheel base, efficient shock absorbers, rubber bumpers and wide scroll, three-quarter elliptic rear springs, make this LITTLE SIX PREMIER the easiest riding car in the country.

The NEW PREMIER is exceptionally deep and wide in the driver's compartment, and the tonneau is also exceptionally large, making a roomy car comfortably seating five.

Electric Lighted

The NEW LITTLE SIX PREMIER is electric lighted throughout by a special generator, simple, uncomplicated, automatically controlled. Imported high tension, dual ignition continues regular equipment.

The lamps are electric headlights, bull's eyes in the dash, and tail lamp, the white light being thrown across the license number.

Positive Starter

The NEW LITTLE SIX PREMIER carries the most positive starting device that has up to this time developed. It is of the pneumatic type, sufficiently powerful to spin the motor at high speed, thereby producing sufficient pull to lift the gases in coldest weather.

This eliminates the greatest inconvenience of modern motoring, as the PREMIER LITTLE SIX starts by the pressure of a button.

Price $2735

For ten years the Premier organization has claimed and proved that there is more material and workmanship and less overhead in Premier price than in any car built in America. It is a fact that the actual cost of these essentials in Premier is as great as any car of high grade; to this cost is added a legitimate manufacturer's profit and an overhead of but a fractional part of the average administrative, selling and carrying expense which figures into the list of the other four leading high-grade automobile manufacturers of the country.

This NEW LITTLE SIX PREMIER chassis represents the limit of actual workmanship and material. The minimum of unproductive overhead and costly selling expense alone makes possible the list of $2735.

Tire Inflator

Premier equipment of Firestone demountable rims greatly reduced the inconvenience resulting from the punctured tire, but with the NEW LITTLE SIX PREMIER this is entirely eliminated by the addition of a tire inflator which has sufficient capacity to at all times supply compressed air for the inflation of your own or the other fellow's tires.

Luxurious Equipment

The PREMIER LITTLE SIX is a complete car. Its regular equipment includes, in addition to the starter, tire inflator and electric lights, a top and windshield, speedometer, foot rail, coat rail, jack, tire iron, complete set of tools, Firestone demountable rims with one extra rim; shock absorbers, recoil straps, etc.

Complete descriptive literature, including two books which tell the story of the amateurs who, last summer, drove their twelve Premier cars from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean on request.

Premier Price is from $2735 to $4000 for Touring Cars, Limousine, Berline, Coupe and De Luxe to $5000

Time for the Bath.
It is not a wise plan to stay in the tub too long, especially if the water be hot or cold. If one stays in a hot bath too long one is apt to feel weakened. A great deal more is to be gained from a short, brisk rub, which is wonderfully refreshing.

Force of Habit.
There is a story of a telephone girl in a big office who went to a doctor with a complaint that her nerves were out of order. "I have got to stop a pitch," said she, "that when I lay down to say my prayers at night I begin with 'Are you there?'"

It is singular that those persons who talk most loudly about their bad luck never ascribe any successes they may achieve to good luck. These are always due to their own good management, and they complacently take great credit therefor.

FARMING ONE'S SELF PROPERLY.

DO YOU know what intensive cultivation is? The other day I heard a man lecture on agriculture and he had a great deal to say about intensive cultivation. And this is what it means.

In days gone by there was so much spare land that men could just scratch the surface of the earth and get plenty to feed the world. But the world is growing very fast. The spare lands are rapidly being taken up and by and by, if we kept up the old-fashioned methods, there wouldn't be enough food to go around. This is where intensive cultivation comes in. It is the science of making the most of every inch of ground by a thorough study of its possibilities and by the use of modern methods. It is the opposite of extensive cultivation. Extensive cultivation means that when you want to produce more you cultivate another acre. Intensive cultivation means that when you want to produce more you make one acre do as much as two.

You have all heard of the efficiency movement in manufacturing. Well, intensive cultivation is the country cousin of efficiency engineering.

And now, you are wondering, what has all this to do with me? Well, in the first place, I think it's a tremendously interesting movement in itself, and in the second place it is tremendously suggestive.

Are you using intensive cultivation in farming yourself? You regret that you haven't a larger farm. In other words, that your opportunities are not wider, your capabilities bigger and your efficiency greater, but are you getting every possible bit of value out of what you have?

You feel sure you could rise in the business world if you only had more influential friends. Are you making the friends you already have eager to help you when it lies in their power?

You wish you were better looking. Are you applying intensive cultivation to the good looks you now have?

You know you could do a great deal more in the world if only you were stronger. Well, are you sure you are not wasting any of your precious store of vitality by foolish and careless habits? Are you sure that every inch of your acre of natural physique is being cultivated and developed after the best modern methods?

You have such a meagre education compared to your neighbor's splendid store of knowledge. Yes, but there have been many cases when intensive cultivation of a very small plot of education has yielded more than careless usage of vast tracts of knowledge.

Intensive cultivation in agriculture fairly astonishes those who apply it by its wonderful results.

A word to the wise, etc.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson—(1) I am a girl of 17, engaged to a boy of 21. I have never kissed him but he thinks I ought to. I have always said I would never kiss a man until I was married to him. Please advise me. (2) Do you approve of turkey-trotting? (3) There is nothing wrong in chewing gum in church, is there.

SAPOLIO. If I were a man engaged to marry a girl I loved, I would surely want her to show her affection for me with a kiss once in a while. If you love him kiss him—but not too much. (2) There are nicer ways of dancing. (3) It is not ladylike. A nice girl won't do it.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I am 17 years old. I have been married only a few months. My husband is a heavy drinker. Last night I went to the door to embrace him when he came home and he immediately knocked me down. What shall I do. It seems as though he doesn't love me any longer. A HEART BOWED DOWN.

He certainly doesn't love you if he treats you like that. I don't see how you can love him any more, either. Tell him that if he can't treat you with respect you will leave him. Do it, too, if he doesn't reform. No decent woman should live with a drunkard.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Can an order for a magazine that has been canceled, be collected, even though they have your signature? They are sending threatening letters.

ANXIOUS. If you made a contract for a certain length of time, you will probably have to fulfill it. Take a copy of your agreement to a good lawyer and have him tell you whether it is binding or not.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Will you please give a lotion that will assist in the speedy restoration of hair that is gone from my eyebrows?

F. M. The best hair grower I know of is yellow vasoline. Apply it every night. During the day if you wish your eyebrows to appear better, use an eyebrow pencil which you can get at the drugstore or toilet counter of any large department store.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a girl of 14 and in the eighth grade. What is a nice way to have a graduation dress made? (2) What place would be the nicest to go—college

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save your hair! Danderine destroys dandruff and stops falling hair at Once—Grows Hair, we prove it—Absolutely Harmless

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life, has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, you must use Danderine, because nothing else accomplishes so much for the hair.

Just one application of Knowlton's Danderine will double the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots faint, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, don't hesitate, but get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now? A 25 cent bottle will truly amaze you.

A FEW FALL SALADS.

If we have been forebanded when pineapples were plentifully, we have a reserve of choice pineapple to use for all sorts of desserts, salads and cake filling. The flavor of the home-canned is much better than that which we ordinarily buy.

Chiffon Salad.—Take a half cup each of dates, figs, pineapple and three oranges and three-fourths of a cup of sugar. Cut the oranges in halves, remove the pulp and put the shells on the ice. Cut the fruit in small pieces and mix with a mayonnaise dressing. Fill each orange cup with the mixture of fruit, sugar and dressing and keep a tablespoonful of whipped cream on top. Serve on lettuce.

Pickles, peas and peanuts are good served with a very little salad dressing.

Date Salad.—Wash, and without paring, cut two medium-sized, good-flavored apples into dice, add a pound of stoned and quartered dates, mix with a cup of pecans and pour over the following dressing.

Two eggs well beaten, four tablespoonfuls of vinegar, a tablespoonful of butter and a tablespoonful of sugar. Season with salt and cook over hot water until thick; remove from the fire, and when cool add a tablespoonful of olive oil.

Orange and Date Salad.—This is a salad particularly nice to serve with duck this fall. Stone the dates and cut in halves lengthwise. Remove the oranges in sections, arrange in a mound on crisp lettuce leaves and surround with the dates. Serve with French dressing.

Fruit Salad.—Cut a half pound of dates into eighths, chop a half cup of figs, mix with half a cup of coconut, three oranges, three bananas, two apples and a bunch of celery, all cut fine; add a half cup of pecan meats and mix all together with mayonnaise dressing. Serve each portion on lettuce or in orange cups with a tablespoonful of sweetened whipped cream on top, decorated with a date cut in quarters.

ARGUMENT FOR WHITE BREAD RESTATED.

Prof. Sherman says lime starvation is becoming almost universal among Americans because of their use of white bread, while recently published reports of the department of agriculture say that white bread is superior in nutritive value to whole wheat bread, and the public who read these contradictory opinions of competent authorities are naturally confused. The modern milling of wheat removes some of its essential elements. There is four times as much lime in the whole wheat as in the white flour, so that if one were to live on bread alone, it would be better to use the entire grain, but entire grain soon spoils when ground and it is practically impossible to furnish a bread made from the entire grain, so that the bread that is commonly sold in stores as whole wheat or graham is not really made from the entire grain. It is true that, from the chemical viewpoint, the white bread is the more nutritious and the more digestible because it contains a smaller percentage of waste, but the bran is valuable in preventing the massing of the starch, making the bread more open to the digestive juices and therefore less liable to cause fermentation. But the advantage of bread over cereals cooked in the double boiler or fireless cooker, lightness, is greater in the white bread, and if milk be eaten with it, which contains for the adult an excess of lime and of some of the other salts, stale white bread is better than the so-called whole wheat or graham bread that is commonly sold. The chief objection to the white bread applies only to the fresh bread.

No More Constipation

It's Me for Olive Tablets.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, a practicing physician for 17 years and Calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar coated tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normal. They never force them to unnatural action.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Olive Tablets at bedtime. They're perfectly harmless.

Thousands take one every night just to keep right. Try them. "Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." 10c and 25c per box.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

The Table. Cherry Custard—Use canned cherries, or any berries; heat and sweeten, then mix two tablespoons (or enough to thicken) cornstarch in a little water and stir in cherries. When thick put in baked crust and cover with beaten whites of two or three eggs. Set the oven or brown just a little. Mrs. Tuttle.

To cook eggs hard without boiling, have water boiling in cooking vessel, one pint to an egg; put in eggs, cover and remove from range; in 30 minutes pour off water and renew with same quantity of boiling water. At end of 20 minutes eggs will be solid but very tender and digestible. Mrs. P. F. E.

Eggless Mayonnaise.—Three tablespoonfuls sugar, one tablespoonful cornstarch, six tablespoonfuls milk, two tablespoonfuls butter, one teaspoon salt (omit), one teaspoon of mustard. When all is mixed add one half cup vinegar, fill cup up with boiling water and cook till thick. Mrs. J. U. Wettstein.

Fruit Cake.—One cup butter, 1 1/2 cups brown sugar, one-half cup molasses, one cup milk, four cups flour, one teaspoon cloves, one teaspoon cinnamon; one nutmeg, 4 teaspoon baking powder, three eggs well beaten, one-fourth pound citron sliced, fine, orange and lemon peel enough to make one fruit cake, one tablespoon brandy, one tablespoon vanilla, two cups raisins, 1 1/2 cups currants. Bake 1 1/2 hours. May G. Eggenmeyer.

Buns.—When putting bread into pans, save out one large cup, dough, let raise until light, then add one cup lukewarm water, half cup sugar, butter size of walnut. Use enough flour to make a soft dough; do not make very stiff. Let stand until light, then make into buns. This recipe will make about 20 buns. X. Y. Z.

Double recipe for large family in winter, as it will keep almost indefinitely when the weather is cold. For bread: One-half teaspoon yeast, one tablespoon sugar and one rice full potatoes to one quart water; in which potatoes were boiled. Keep in warm place over night, add salt to taste and mix without setting sponge. When doubled in bulk, work over. When risen a second time, put in pans. Mrs. J. F. Evans.

Where Credit is Harmful. Reasonable credit may help a working man in poor circumstances, but unreasonable credit only tends to crush him.

Hypnotism in Medicine. Hypnotism has been recognized by the medical profession since the fifteenth century.

Mother's Responsibility. Every mother should commence to be her child's companion from the moment of birth, says a writer. The impressions of early childhood are best, and as Napoleon Bonaparte said: "The future good or bad conduct of a child depends entirely on the mother."

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar coated tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normal. They never force them to unnatural action.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are so easy to take that children do not regard them as "medicine" at all.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Olive Tablets at bedtime. They're perfectly harmless.

Thousands take one every night just to keep right. Try them. "Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." 10c and 25c per box.

To cook eggs hard without boiling, have water boiling in cooking vessel, one pint to an egg; put in eggs, cover and remove from range; in 30 minutes pour off water and renew with same quantity of boiling water. At end of 20 minutes eggs will be solid but very tender and digestible. Mrs. P. F. E.

When all is mixed add one half cup vinegar, fill cup up with boiling water and cook till thick. Mrs. J. U. Wettstein.

Fruit Cake.—One cup butter, 1 1/2 cups brown sugar, one-half cup molasses, one cup milk, four cups flour, one teaspoon cloves, one teaspoon cinnamon; one nutmeg, 4 teaspoon baking powder, three eggs well beaten, one-fourth pound citron sliced, fine, orange and lemon peel enough to make one fruit cake, one tablespoon brandy, one tablespoon vanilla, two cups raisins, 1 1/2 cups currants. Bake 1 1/2 hours. May G. Eggenmeyer.

Buns.—When putting bread into pans, save out one large cup, dough, let raise until light, then add one cup lukewarm water, half cup sugar, butter size of walnut. Use enough flour to make a soft dough; do not make very stiff. Let stand until light, then make into buns. This recipe will make about 20 buns. X. Y. Z.

Keep in warm place over night, add salt to taste and mix without setting sponge. When doubled in bulk, work over. When risen a second time, put in pans. Mrs. J. F. Evans.

The Gadder Is On the Job

Travelers Don't Fear Strange Dishes
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Enable the Stomach to Stand Anything.

A Box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Is Your Best Traveling Companion.
"Railroads tell you about the wonders of Nature along their lines; hotels describe their modern accommodations; but they never fail to ring in their 'cuisine unexcelled.' The wise traveler knows he is taking 'pot luck' when he leaves home, hence a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is quite as essential as many of the other traveling requisites."

Thus commented a philosophical traveling man, speaking of hotel life, restaurants, grills and junction lunch counters. "The agitations in this world," he continued, "are the result of one set of men trying to compel the other set to think and act against their own inclinations. It is the same in religion, politics, and eating. I have learned from experience to eat what they serve, to forget the food, experts read the current news, and jokes and leave the stomach to the best expert in the world—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."

And Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets actually do the work assigned them. They relieve weak and overburdened stomachs of a great portion of digestive action. Their component parts assist the digestive fluids and secretions of the stomach and they simply take up the grind and carry on the work just the same as a good, strong, healthy stomach would do it.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists, at 50 cents a box, and they are the one article that the druggist does not try to sell something in the place of it that's "just as good." Their unequalled merit and success, and the universal demand for them has placed them within the reach of everyone.

JURY FINDS FINLEY GUILTY OF SELLING LIQUOR TO MINORS

Brought in Verdict at Five O'clock
Last Evening—Fined $50
And Costs Taxed at $19.21.

Richard F. Finley, proprietor of a saloon at 22 South River street was found guilty by a jury yesterday afternoon of having sold intoxicating liquor on September 14, to Philip Hudson, and Joseph Graebner, students at the Blind Institute, in violation of the city ordinance prohibiting the sale of such liquor to minors. The jury was sent out at 4:30 o'clock after counsel for prosecution and defense had made their pleas, and returned with its verdict a half hour later. Judge Charles Fifield then declared the defendant convicted of the offense and sentenced him to pay a fine of $50 and costs, taxed at $19.21.

Richard Finley, the defendant took the stand in his own defense. He said that he had never sold liquor to the two boys in question at any time and that he had never seen them until they were brought into the court room that day. Miss Fanning and William McGee, bartenders for the stand, were also called to the stand. Fanning also denied selling liquor to Hudson and Graebner or having seen them before.

In reply to the questions of City Attorney Dougherty he said that he was not positive that he had never sold them any liquor. The testimony of McGee was similar to that of Fanning. He stated that he was employed in the Finley saloon as an extra bartender, having worked there ever since Mr. Finley was injured in an automobile accident four and a half months ago.

It is probable that Mr. Finley will appeal the case to the Circuit Court.

RESIDENCE AFFECTS STATE INCOME TAX

Ringling Brothers Escape Income Tax by Removing Residences From Baraboo.

Friends of the income tax, who have been using the fact that the Ringling Bros., great circus had decided to again winter in Wisconsin, as an example that the law is not so obnoxious after all, will be surprised to read the statement of Assemblyman John R. Hofstatter of Baraboo which explains many facts in the case. When Mr. Hofstatter's attention was called to the statement that the Ringling circus had decided to re-establish winter quarters at Baraboo, notwithstanding the Wisconsin income tax law, which had been given out as the reason for its removal from the state, he said:

"It is true," said Mr. Hofstatter, "that the Ringling circus has returned to Baraboo and will make Baraboo the winter quarters of the organization, but it is not true that the Ringlings have returned to Baraboo."

"The Ringling circus is not a corporation, but is owned by the firm of Ringling Brothers. John Ringling has established his home in New York; Henry Ringling has established his home at Bridgeport, Conn.; Charles Ringling has established his home in Florida, and Alfred Ringling has his household goods in New York. The Ringlings are removing from the state but has not yet decided where he will locate. The establishing by these gentlemen of their separate homes in other states will relieve them entirely from the income tax law of Wisconsin."

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

BE A BOOSTER.

In the siege of Ladysmith during the Boer war a civilian was tried by court martial and sent to prison because he discouraged the soldiers who were defending the city.

He was a knocker.

The man was accustomed to go along the picket line and say discouraging things to the men on duty. He told them the city was doomed and scouted all suggestion of relief.

He was rightly sent to jail.

In such a time of stress no man has any right to weaken the hearts of men.

It is a great pity every community should not have the power to put its knockers in jail. The knocker is a prophet of evil who goes about with gloomy face and retails his forebodings.

He sees only the dark side.

Temperamentally the knocker cannot forbear to throw cold water on any exhibition of generous enthusiasm. He is a wet blanket. He dampens all ardor.

He is a pessimist.

Instead of trying to lift some of the burdens from the shoulders of men he puts on new burdens; instead of clearing the pathway for progress he puts obstacles in the way. He eases no pain of the sufferer, but helps to widen the wounds.

He is a discourager.

Everywhere worn and weary men and women gallantly fight in defense of some beleaguered city of Ladysmith. Many are hard pressed, and some are upon the verge of surrender.

Now—

He who goes along the picket line of mortal life with his disheartening prophecy of failure, who makes heavy the heart and palsies the arm of the brave warrior, is a traitor to his race. Humanity is brave and needs only the word of cheer and hope.

There is a subtle force in suggestion. Whether good or ill. Use it to boost your comrade. If he be discouraged tell him re-enforcements are coming. Suggest success.

Do not be a knocker.

Be a booster.

Radiate hope and cheer. And so shall your life be luminous and behind you and about you will be a trail of glory that shall grow brighter upon the perfect day.

Love Versus Passion.

Love and passion are too often mistaken, for they are in reality distinct. Love elevates, passion degrades; love enlarges the heart, passion narrows it. Pure love is entirely free from the taint of passion and is as rare as pure charity.—Home Notes.

THE NEW MINISTER.
(By Howard L. Rann.)

THE new minister is a shy plant which is torn up by the roots every three or four years and located among total strangers. Sometimes this is done at the request of the minister and sometimes at the request of an irate body of parishioners.

Whenever a minister is transplanted as the result of insurgency in the church it will usually be found that the leading insurgents are those who never attend "divine" worship except on Easter Sunday, but who contribute heavily from a front seat on the platform. Their criticism of the minister always is served. Everybody come, and have a good time.

down, everything! I know something, already, from the old monks—the rough diagrams in their books. You entered where? Take the pencil and—

"No More, I Say!"

"Why did I cross myself that day on the island, when I saw her—behind you?" Sanchez's tactfulness, the reticence of years—suddenly burst its bonds. "Because she made me think of the former lady of the Mount—the Governor's wife—who betrayed the Seigneur, your father! I promised him to keep the secret—he would have it for the sake of the lady; but now—to you! Your father was stabbed at the foot of the Mount by the Governor!"

"Stabbed! By him!"

"It was given out," sourly, "by rogues—again to shield her!"

"But—"

"That same day he had a letter—from her. As evening fell he walked near the Mount—was followed by the Governor, who sprang, struck in the back and left him for dead! I found him and took him home. But before he recovered, it was reported my lady had died."

"How?"

"I know not; a punishment, perhaps! She was always delicate—or liked to be considered such—a white-faced, pretty, smiling thing whose beauty and treachery this other one, the daughter, inherits. It was the ghost of herself looking over your shoulder that day on the island, with the same bright, perfidious eyes—"

"Enough!" Angriest the Black Seigneur brought down his hand. "I will bear no more!"

"Because she has caught your fancy! Because you—"

"No more, I say! Think you I would not avenge your wrongs at once, were it possible? That I would not strike for you, on the instant! But now! My hands are tied. Another matter of life, or death—presses first!"

Sanchez looked at him quickly; said no more; between them, the silence grew. The servant was the first to move; turning to the table, he began to eat; at first mechanically; afterward faster, with the ravenous zest of one who has not tasted food for many hours. The other, for his part, showed no immediate desire to disturb that occupation; for sometime waited; and it was not until the servant stopped, reached out his arm for a glass, to drink, that the young man again spoke.

"The palace? The plan of the Mount? Did you notice? Tell me something of it—how it is laid out—"

Sanchez swallowed; set down the glass hard. "Yes, yes! I saw much—a great deal!" he answered with eager zest. "Oh, I kept my eyes open, although I seemed not to, and was mindful of learning all I could!"

"Here!" From his pocket the young man took a notebook, pencil. "Set it

"The minutes passed and still Sanchez traced, seemed almost to forget his injuries in his interest in the labor. Plan after plan was made; torn up; one finally remained in the hand of the Black Seigneur."

"You think—" Anxiously, the servant watched his master's face; but the latter, straight, erect, with keen eyes fixed, did not answer.

"You think—" again began the man when the ancient time-piece, beating harshly the hour, interrupted.

"Eleven o'clock! High tide!" The Black Seigneur pushed back his chair and rose.

"Good!" Sanchez's alacrity, indicated a quick comprehension of what the movement portended.

"You—had better remain here!" shortly.

"Me?" said the servant with a harsh laugh. "Me?"

"Have you not had enough of my family—my service?" the young Seigneur demanded bitterly.

"Bah!" muttered the other. "The dog that's beaten springs at the chance to bite! You go to rescue your comrades. I will go with you!"

"In which case, death—vengeance—will most likely be your reward!"

"I care not!" stubbornly.

"A moment the Black Seigneur regarded him; then made a gesture.

"Well, have your way!" He listened. "The wind is in the west."

"A little south of west," answered the man.

"A rough night for your boat to have crossed!"

"Oh, I was bound to come! And if you hadn't been here, I'd have gone on, on—till I found you."

"The hand of the young man touched the other's shoulder. "Come!" he said, and threw open the door.

"You are going in the storm?" The girl, Nanette, intercepted them.

The Black Seigneur nodded shortly.

"It must be an important mission to take you to sea on such a night. Why don't you stay where it's warm and comfortable? Or, with a laugh, "at least until Monsieur Gabarile," indicating the corpulent figure intrenched behind a barricade of dishes and bottles on a small table near the fire, "has finished the little puppet play he is writing."

"It is finished!" As he spoke, the poet rose. "I had but written 'curtain' when you spoke. Your wine, fair Nanette, hath a rarely inspiring quality!"

"Oh, I care not for your compliments!" she returned. "Your captaincy," again studying the Black Seigneur with dark sedulous eyes, "has not found it so much to his liking! He has neither asked for more, nor drunk what he ordered; and now would venture out—"

Unmindful of her words the young man called to old Pierre.

"Well," she went on, throwing back her head, "if you lose your ship, come to me, and—I'll see you have another!"

Above in his chamber at the inn, not long thereafter, the priest, looking out of the window, saw a line of men file down the narrow stairs; embark in the small boats from the sheltered nook where they lay, and later, in the light of the moon, breaking from between scudding clouds and angry vapors, a ship that got under way—glided like a phantom craft from the heaven and set seaward through the foam.

the enforced "ecclesiastical tenth" to the exclusion of any great desire to avail themselves of the compensating privilege of beholding and bowing before the sacred relics. To these recalcitrant spirits, license and a rough sort of merry-making became the order of the hour.

Early in the morning the multitude began to arrive—in every manner of dilapidated vehicle, astride starved-looking donkeys and bony horses, or on foot. Many who had camped out the night before, by wayside or in forest, brought with them certain scanty provisions and a kitchen pot in which to boil thin soup, or some poor makeshift mess; others came empty-handed, "pilgrims" out at the elbow and shoeless, trusting to fortune for their sustenance, and looking capable even of having poached in one of the wide forests they had traversed, despite a penalty, severe and disproportionate to the offense, for laying hand on any lord's wild birds or rabbits.

Savage men; sordid men—good, bad and indifferent! Like ants, thronging about the hill, they straightway streamed to the Mount; took possession of it, or as much as lay open to them; for around the top, chosen abode of the Governor, extended a wall, grim, dark and ominous; bristling with holes which seemed to look blackly down; to watch, to listen and to frown. Without that pretentious line of encircling masonry, the usual din, accompaniment to the day and the presence of so many people, prevailed; within, reigned silence, a solemn hush, unbroken by even a sentinel's tread.

"I shall be glad when it's all over!" Standing at the window of her chamber the Lady Elise had passed in dressing to look out upon the throng—a thousand dots upon the sand, dark moving masses in the narrow byways, and motionless ones near the temporary altars.

"Oh, my Lady!" Her companion, and former nurse, a woman about fifty years of age, ventured this mild exclamation.

"There, Marie! You can go!"

"Yes, your Ladyship—"

"One moment!" The slender figure turned. "This fastening—"

In an instant the woman was by her side.

"Have you heard anything more about the prisoners, Marie?" abruptly. "Those who were tried, I mean?"

"Nothing—only Beppo said they are to be hanged day after tomorrow—when the pilgrimage is over."

"Day after tomorrow!" The brown eyes looked hard and bright; the small white teeth pressed her lip. "And the man my father—the Governor—had whipped from the Mount—you have heard nothing more of him—where he has gone?"

"No, my Lady; he seems to have disappeared completely; fled this country, perhaps, for those islands where so many like him," half bitterly, "have gone before!"

The girl looked up in a preoccupied manner. "Poor Marie! Your only sister died there, didn't she?"

"Yes, my Lady; I never saw her after she left France with her husband and baby girl. He was an unpatriotic fellow—Pierre Larochet!"

"No doubt," said the Governor's daughter absently, as the other prepared to leave the room.

Alone, the girl remained for several moments motionless before the great Venetian mirror; then mechanically, hardly looking at the reflection the glass threw back at her, she finished her toilet. This task accomplished, still she stood with brows closely drawn; afar the flute-like voices of the "choir boys" arose from different parts of the Mount, but she did not seem to hear them; made a sudden quick gesture and walked toward the door in the manner of one who has arrived at some resolution.

Passing down a corridor, she reached an arched opening whose massive door swung easily to her touch, and let herself out by a private way, which had once been the ancient abbots' way, to an isolated corner of a small secluded platform. From this point a stairway led up to a passage spanning a great gulf. Below and aside, where the red-tiled houses clung to the steep slope of the rock, fluttered many flags; yet the girl did not pause either to contemplate or admire. Only when her glance passed seaward and rested on the far-away ocean's rim of light, did she stop for an instant—mid-way on the bridge—then, compressing her lips, moved on the faster; down the incline on the other side; up winding stairs between giant columns, reaching, at length, that bright and grateful opening, the cloister. With an unvarying air of resolution she stepped forward; looked in; the place was empty—silent save for the tinkling of the tiny fountain in the center.

"Are you looking for some one, my Lady?"

The voice was that of Beppo, who was regarding her from an angle in the cloister walk.

"I am looking for his Excellency," I suppose he is—"

"In the apartments of state, my Lady. But—" The girl frowned.

"But, but!" she said. "But what?"

"His Excellency has left word—he was expecting a minister from Paris—that no one else was to be admitted; the matter was so important that he wished no interruptions."

Symptoms of Consumption

Yield to Vinol.

The medical profession does not believe that consumption is inherited, but a person may inherit a weakness or tendency to that disease.

A prominent citizen of Evansville, Ind., writes: "I was ill for five months with a pulmonary trouble, and had the best of doctors; I had hemorrhages and was in a very bad way. Through the advice of a friend I tried Vinol, and I feel that it saved my life. It is all you recommend it to be. I believe it is the greatest medicine on earth. I have advised others to try Vinol, and they have had the same results." (Name furnished on request.)

Vinol soothes and heals the inflamed surfaces and allays the cough. Vinol creates an appetite, strengthens the digestive organs and gives the patient strength to throw off incidental pulmonary diseases.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

First Brass Band.

A little more than 70 years ago there was no such thing as a brass band in existence. The very first band entirely of brass dates no further back than 1835. Prior to that time even the military music was produced almost entirely from instruments of wood, and as recently as 1873 a full regimental band consisted of two oboes, two clarinets, two horns and bassoons.

Cheap Railway Travel.

In the cities of Great Britain the population of which is 200,000 or more, the average rate of fare for street railway travel is 1.1 cents a passenger mile. In the cities of continental Europe the average rate of fare paid for urban transportation is one cent a passenger mile.

GOOD NEWS

Many Gazette Readers Have Heard of and Have Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Janesville, are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. B. F. Jones, 419 Western Ave., Janesville, Wis., says: "My back was so painful, that I had to go around all stooped over and sometimes there was weakness through my joints that made it impossible for me to stand. I did not sleep well and it seemed as if a weight was tied to my back. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I got a box at the People's Drug Co. and began using them. They cured me and at that time I was pleased to make the fact known by means of a public statement. I take pleasure in confirming all I have previously said regarding Doan's Kidney Pills and add that I value them as highly as ever. I know that this remedy can be relied upon to correct any symptom of kidney trouble."

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, Oct. 30, 1872.—At Cooksville: A glorious republican meeting was held at Cooksville last night, the people of Porter turning out in large numbers to listen to the closing efforts of the campaign. John J. R. Bennett, Capt. S. J. M. Putnam and A. H. Baxter did the speaking and their words were received with the greatest enthusiasm. Porter will vote right next Tuesday.

Proposed Extension: The report that the C. M. & St. P. R. R. company will extend its road to the Mississippi has excited the Monroites. The Republican says: The news that our railroad is to be extended soon will be cheering to many of our people. Now let every man in Monroe advocate the establishment here of manufacturing that will give employment to our laboring men, and mechanics, and induce others to come and dwell with us. With an average amount of energy and public spirit at work here, Monroe might be one of the first inland towns in the state.

Brief Items: A report prevailing on the streets this morning was that Cooksville was burning. Telegraphic advices from that city inform us that a lumber yard was destroyed by fire on the south side, involving a loss of $5,000. This fire was undoubtedly the origin of the report. Fever and ague are departing. A few of the tough cases still make it lively for their victims. Commodore Foote and party will exhibit Nov. 2. Potatoes are coming to town.

Grim winter is a time of dread to people who are shy of bread, who hear the wolf before their door, and have no credit at the store, whose children cry in vain for cake to soothe their painful stomach aches. Alas, that some must suffer thus! Alas, that some must groan and cuss, when from the North the wintry blast goes screaming and rip-roaring past! For when the shack is well supplied with flour, and bacon on the side, when we have apple pies and mince, gooseberry jam and peach and quince, and coat and cordwood by the ton, and in the clock a roll of money, then winter is a thing sublime, with all its snow and sleet and rime. To sit beside a cheerful fire, and read a book or punch a lyre, and hear above the household din the storm go whooping past like spring, that's solid comfort, such as Spring, or Summer days can never bring. Hope that when the Winter comes, and old King Blizzard ups and bums, you all may know the peace and bliss of sitting by the fire like this! And if, while to the fire we tend, we think of hard up folks and send some pies or cordwood to the poor, our happiness will be more sure.
